

8 STEPS TO MAKING A MAN WANT YOU

By Ask Chauntel aka Chauntel Delgado

No matter what stage you are in your relationship or even if you are single, there are number of principles to consider to keep a man wanting you and coming back for more!

Let's chat about a few!

Please Note: This list is not exhaustive. There is much more that I could add to this article, but I feel that this will get you off to a great start!

1. Have a Life: If you are always attached to his hip and never have anything else going on in your life, you lose the adventure. Keep your friends, go out and do things. Bottom line, don't be boring.

2. Be His Sunshine: This one's important. You want to be his happy place. When the big bad world comes knocking, you want to be the place he turns to for support and advice. Help him to feel better, show him love.

3. Don't Be a Nag: This is the easiest way to lose him. He will flee from you! This doesn't mean you cannot have a voice. It just means bide your time and know when to ask for what you want. If you time it right, and he loves you, you can get whatever you want!

4. Be Feminine: It still works, even during this era of independent women. You can still have your place in the world and allow him to lead. Submitting doesn't mean that you have no control, it actually puts you in the driver's seat because if you make him feel like a man, then he will do whatever he can to make sure you feel like his woman. Looking good and smelling good also always helps!
5. No Wine Before It is Time: I do believe in abstinence. If you don't, well just know if you give it up too soon, he won't have anything to work for. You might then lose him before it begins.
6. Be Yourself: If you try to be something that you are not, it will catch up to you. So don't. Be the best version of you, and do not give away all the baggage at the beginning. As the relationship progresses then you may begin to share more of yourself. This means, don't talk about your exes on the first date. :)
7. Don't Invite Yourself In: Earn your place in his life. If you try to rush this step you will never get there. If he never does it, speak about it. If too much time has passed it is time to move on.
8. Be Smart and Have a Good Head on Your Shoulders: You want him to feel as though, if he doesn't have you in his life then he is missing out on something. So make smart life choices. Better yourself and, always have goals for your life. If he doesn't do the same run far away!
